Sponsored by the Institute for Engineering in Medicine (IEM) to Inspire High School Students to Consider Careers in using STEM to Research, Treat and Cure Diseases, and for Healthcare Delivery

FRIDAY
NOVEMBER 16th
9:30am - 2:00pm
McNamara Alumni Center

Lunch Keynote
MANNY VILLAFANA
Founder of Guidant (Acquired by Boston Scientific), St. Jude Medical (Acquired by Abbott), ATS Medical (Acquired by Medtronic) and several other medical device companies that went public.

Plenary & Breakout Speakers Representing:
- University of Minnesota Faculty and Administration
- Representatives of Minnesota’s Medical Technology Companies

Topics:
- Research on Cancer, Heart Disease, Addiction & Brain Conditions
- Development of Robotics, Imaging, 3D Printing & Neuromodulation Technologies
- Careers in using STEM to Research, Treat and Cure Diseases, and for Healthcare Delivery

The Institute for Engineering in Medicine at the University of Minnesota - iem.umn.edu
For additional information contact Ken Rosen at krosen@umn.edu